If you have any new ideas, questions, wonderings, imaginings, could be.

Jr. and Lorenzo arrive at one of their many appointments and events in the week leading up to Thanksgiving! The ECo (Episcopal Cohort) SINGs have been meeting almost monthly to engage and connect with those who visit for the SINGs. The upcoming podcast began recording in early November and is excited about what conversations might need to happen to try something new. The episode will be released around mid-November.

What conversations might need to happen to try something new?

What conversations might need to happen to try something new?

What conversations might need to happen to try something new?

What conversations might need to happen to try something new?

What conversations might need to happen to try something new?

What conversations might need to happen to try something new?