12:11:19 From Peter Mayer (he/him/his) to Everyone:
Great idea! How many?

12:11:31 From The Rev. Debbie Shew to Everyone:
And perhaps click out of Zoom and come back in? Sometimes work for me!

12:11:46 From Sarah Bentley Allred (she/her/hers) to Everyone:
The process can be part of the ministry!

12:11:57 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
We did this too - it was so appreciated.

12:12:23 From Carolyn to Everyone:
Curious about contents of the Gift Bags. and the cost. :)

12:12:59 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Carolyn, feel free to put that question in the Q&A, but I'll also try to find a link for an article for you with ideas

12:13:46 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
Did anyone else see the phone tree make a comeback in the last couple of years? I've heard that from many people

12:14:19 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
Yes indeed - a great way to keep people connected.

12:14:32 From Christ Church, Ridley Park to Everyone:
phone tree question - is it an actual tree or 20 people with a list of x# people?

12:14:34 From Lesley MacKellar to Everyone:
We found it helpful too in Indianapolis

12:14:50 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Carolyn, here is a link from Lent in a bag: <https://buildfaith.org/lent-in-a-bag/>

12:14:55 From Lesley MacKellar to Everyone:
We used the latter approach

12:15:22 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Christ Church, Ridley Park, good question. I've heard/seen folks do it both ways

12:15:28 From Fr, Gerardo+ Brambila to Everyone:
Yes, indeed, the phone tree worked really well for about two years. St. Mark's Mesa, Arizona

12:15:39 From Maureen Hagen to Everyone:
Our small congregation feels more connected than ever because we have one Zoom communion (v. 2 services) with a robust coffee hour. In addition, several attend Poetry on Tuesdays, Faith Explorations or Book Club on Thursdays. No phone trees, but we keep ourselves aware of how others are doing.

12:15:55 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:

@Lesley and @Fr. Gerardo, thanks for letting us know how you did it

12:15:57 From Vicki Ix to Everyone:
Thanks, Tim. LOVE the Marvel idea!

12:16:00 From Jessica Hitchcock to Everyone:
hi!!!!

12:16:08 From Peter Mayer (he/him/his) to Everyone:
Hi Kit!!

12:16:33 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Maureen, that's great!

12:16:43 From Tim Backus - St. Brigit, Frederick to Everyone:
Good to see you, Tim. Hope the rest of life is going well.

12:17:09 From Carolyn to Everyone:
I do love that movie trailer idea - not too hard to create on iMovie app.

12:17:44 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
Here's Dr. Carlson's bio on the All Saints site: <https://www.allsaints-el.org/content.cfm?id=149&pid=17>

12:17:47 From Vicki Ix to Everyone:
Pastoral presence in the chat during the service - yes!

Here is the link to our Back to Church Video - <https://youtu.be/iHXRUtlRy-k>

12:18:11 From Charles Lane Cowen (he/him) to Everyone:
Oh man, I wish I could migrate to YouTube, but it took MONTHS to get the less tech savvy to Facebook, and they refuse to go anywhere else. Even with Google, they can't seem to find YouTube videos.

12:18:13 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Tim, thanks so much!

12:18:52 From Ken Kroohs to Everyone:
We had good luck with drive-in Ash Wednesday. Very short prayer first.

12:19:27 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
At the beginning of the service, I greet everyone at home watching on Facebook and invite prayer requests, to make the streamed service more immediate

12:19:30 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
Wow! 25 people in a 101 is great in "normal" times!

12:20:12 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Sr. Ingrid, that's a great best practice--include those who aren't physically present

12:20:41 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
Anyone else have new "virtual members" who have attended faithfully every Sunday over a year, and contribute but live too far away ever to attend in person?

12:20:56 From Jeremy Greaves to Everyone:
Were all the online "visitors" local? Or from all over? One of the challenges seems to be how to engage those visitors who might come from the other side of the country... or the world.

12:20:57 From Christ Church, Ridley Park to Everyone:

ingrid - yes,
12:20:59 From Liz to Everyone:
Yes - we do too
12:21:01 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
Yay!!
12:21:20 From Karen Sanchez to Everyone:
We have a couple of folks who found us online and attend only online
12:21:41 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Kit, thanks for being real about being tired
12:21:50 From Christ Church, Ridley Park to Everyone:
thanks for the truth about the exhausted
12:21:52 From RevDVM to Everyone:
@Sr. Ingrid- yes! although some a from former parishes I have served ;-)
12:22:02 From St Thomas to Everyone:
We've had visitors from New Zealand, Australia, South Africa and Europe. So I often use Anglican liturgies from those countries. My folks like the variety.
12:22:32 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
Brilliant Cocoa truck!
12:22:39 From Jeremy Greaves to Everyone:
Families seem to be the missing piece here too
12:23:01 From Michelle Palmer she/her to Everyone:
Families have never come back. Oof I feel that.
12:23:10 From Clare Nesmith to Everyone:
Our families have not returned either on Long Island
12:23:18 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
Jeremy, yes - the children are zoomed out from online schooling.
12:23:43 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
Theme: Connection!
12:23:52 From Jeremy Greaves to Everyone:
Yes, Ingrid, and mostly we can't compete with the other online content that kids are watching
12:24:09 From St Thomas to Everyone:
Our families are not back yet, maybe after the kids are vaccinated. Here they should have their 2nd dose by mid-February.
12:24:11 From Charles Lane Cowen (he/him) to Everyone:
I'm learning that retired and older folks are loving zoom offerings, and working-age folks and youth would do literally anything else besides another zoom
12:24:14 From Vanessa Cato to Everyone:
Thank you, Kit. I relate to all of that. We are a smallish congregation and I feel exhausted with all the different ways we are worshipping and connecting -or not. And feeling sad about those who don't seem to want to worship in any way
12:24:39 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
Charles, I'm hearing that too. People are longing for face to face connection. Hard to do with masks, which are essential right now.

12:24:40 From Zeb Treloar St. John's Episcopal Murray, KY to Everyone:
We had service audio streamed to our memorial garden when it was warmer here, and that's really how we brought families back. Now that it's cold and omicron, they're really not here again.

12:24:40 From youth group emmanuel 20 to Host and Panelists:
Same @ Charles

12:25:00 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Zeb, I love that idea!

12:25:34 From Carolyn to Everyone:
Families are having SUCH a rough time. We'll be doing Lenten family hikes on Sunday mornings – hoping to invite families to connect to each other and the church family on Sunday mornings. And it's safely outside!

12:26:05 From Kathy Andonian to Everyone:
We have a steady group of online congregants from both the local area and far away. We hold a welcome service for newcomers at least twice each year and included our online congregants in this service—we welcome everyone by name and offer a bit of information about them (approved by the person/family, of course!). We also have a number of our online congregants active in our online ministries such as book groups, etc.

12:26:08 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Carolyn, hikes are a great idea. I'll find a link to an article on that

12:26:16 From Mercy Hobbs to Everyone:
Carolyn, good idea! Lots of places to hike around here!

12:26:19 From Michelle Palmer she/her to Everyone:
Love the hikes!

12:26:30 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
We're about to do a book study of BBT's An Altar in the World, looking at ways to find God and worship in places other than the sanctuary.

12:26:41 From Ken Kroohs to Everyone:
TryTank's latest experiment about reaching out to new people has space for a few more churches. See newsletter under Experiment update

12:26:50 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
Holy Hikes with the Psalms: <https://buildfaith.org/holy-hikes-with-the-psalms/>

12:27:19 From St Thomas to Everyone:
Music is what my folks want. So glad for my musicians.

12:27:38 From Michelle Palmer she/her to Everyone:
Our tech minister edits everything but the message when uploading to YouTube after the livestream.

12:28:03 From Karen Sanchez to Everyone:
We use online.church – it's very easy to use and our older folks like it better than YouTube (which we also use).

12:28:09 From Mercy Hobbs to Everyone:
Music is what a lot of people in my congregation missed So glad when musicians came back :)

12:28:20 From Jonathan Brice to Everyone:
What was the Patio idea called??

12:28:28 From Br. James Patrick Hall to Everyone:
Good to see you, Fr. Everett!

12:28:32 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
Is this the online church platform you mentioned, Everett? I did some quick googling: <https://churchonlineplatform.com/>

12:28:35 From The Rev. Tim Baer to Everyone:
We called it a Patio Hangout

12:28:49 From Jonathan Brice to Everyone:
Thank you Tim

12:28:51 From The Rev. Everett Lees to Host and Panelists:
<https://christchurchtulsa.online.church>

12:29:19 From The Rev. Everett Lees to Host and Panelists:
<https://online.church>

12:29:34 From Fr, Gerardo+ Brambila to Everyone:
The phone tree is: You have at your church, a group of "key" people making phone calls to the entire congregation. Your team prayed with the parishioners and asked them, how the church can help them. It is like checking in, like saying, "we are here for you" even in difficult times

12:29:34 From Debbie Fice she/her to Everyone:
Will the chat, with all the links that have been posted, also be made available after this webinar?

12:29:38 From Sandra Fyfe to Everyone:
Patio Hangout is a brilliant name

12:29:56 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
I've done Bible Studies, Book Study, the offices and Taize services via Zoom

12:29:56 From Lorenzo Lebrija • TryTank to Everyone:
yes

12:30:09 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Debbie, I'm trying to collect them for Lorenzo as we go!

12:30:50 From Fr. Rob Goodridge to Host and Panelists:
We used freeconferencecall.com for daily morning prayer by telephone. Connected well with non tech folks

12:31:47 From RevDVM to Everyone:
Zoom fatigue is real!

12:31:51 From Sarah Bentley Allred (she/her/hers) to Everyone:
I feel that Zoom fatigue

12:31:53 From Carolyn to Everyone:
We do 6 Zoom morning prayer and 4 Zoom Compline every week.
Did small groups on Zoom for Lent. Wine tasting event – called "Fruit of the Vines," Creative Conversations – just to get together and chat about topics. I love Zoom but also am tired of it...

12:32:04 From Addie Tapp to Everyone:
We did Zoom "clergy klatch" with our clergy discussing a in interesting question livestreamed to facebook with parishioners able to comment in questions online. we used a moderator to monitor that chat and then speak the questions into the zoom. Now it is hybrid and also sent out later as a podcast

12:32:15 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
Amen, Caroline

12:32:18 From Anne-Marie Jeffery to Everyone:
Can you tell us about how the hybrid adult courses work?

12:32:21 From Charles Lane Cowen (he/him) to Everyone:
Now I want to do a Lanai Hangout where we watch The Golden Girls and talk about Jesus

12:32:29 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
*

12:32:33 From Jonathan Brice to Everyone:
Hello Kit, What was the name of the was Mary a virgin event called?

12:32:34 From Carolyn to Everyone:
@Charles that sounds amazing

12:32:56 From The Rev. Dr. Kit Carlson she/her/hers to Everyone:
Best Happy Hour Ever

12:33:05 From Daniel Leatherman to Everyone:
No 4th option that we are in edemic?

12:33:13 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
Haha as if we even know what we're talking about with the pandemic...

12:33:15 From Nicole Janelle to Host and Panelists:
I choose to be a COVID optimist! 😊

12:33:17 From Christ Church, Ridley Park to Everyone:
We have had some success with seasonal 'pub quiz' nights.

12:33:19 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
@Tim's reactions are great

12:33:25 From Jonathan Brice to Everyone:
Thank you Kit

12:34:16 From Fr. Rob Goodridge to Everyone:
We used freeconferencecall.com for daily MP over the phone. Worked well with non tech folks

12:34:28 From Laura McGuire to Everyone:
Can it be both endemic and the new normal?

12:34:28 From Vanessa Cato to Everyone:
For our children pre-recorded Sunday School worked well, with activity bags for some of it. We're now back in person with Sunday School, but we are struggling with our little group of teenagers

12:34:43 From St Thomas to Everyone:
Read it. Great book, but a bit of a slog but worth it.

12:34:46 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
Oh, LORDS

12:35:03 From Trinity Church to Everyone:
I reject Nicholas' reality and substitute my own.

12:35:12 From Laura Lipscomb to Everyone:
whether or not we are in pandemic or not, our people and culture around us are DONE!

12:35:15 From Chrissie Crosby to Everyone:
we have tried to keep the teens meeting in person throughout.

they tolerate cold and discomfort in the parking lots much better than most adults

12:35:16 From Carolyn to Everyone:

12:35:26 From Bettianne to Everyone:

our church is not online savy – even zoom is hard to get them to join

12:35:34 From Candice Frazer+ to Everyone:

ugh. I cannot PIVOT anymore!!!!

12:35:37 From Anne-Marie Jeffery to Everyone:

I acknowledge that it may go on, but I can do one year at a time...

12:35:39 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:

12:35:44 From RevDVM to Everyone:

Laura McGuire-- yes. We ARE people of the Via Media as Anglicans/Episcopalians

12:35:49 From Robert Bunker to Host and Panelists:

Early retirement

12:35:51 From Fr. Rob Goodridge to Everyone:

Consistency

12:35:52 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:

I'm laughing hysterically here.

12:35:54 From M.E. Eccles (he, him, his) to Everyone:

absolutely! Let the grief out!

12:36:05 From Vanessa Cato to Everyone:

Some of the things, like livestream, we will probably continue anyway, as we have a very geographically spread out congregation.

12:36:16 From Jennifer Deaton to Everyone:

I'd love to connect with other folks in smaller parishes – the ideas I'm hearing are all so creative and wonderful, but I'm a solo priest in a congregation of 40 in a very, very small town. We are worshipping in person, but not everyone is back. I have a part time (less than 20 hours) parish administrator. I feel like the weight of creativity falls on me.

12:36:23 From Larry Ehren to Host and Panelists:

Maintain connections in all sorts of creative ways.

12:36:24 From Carol Harrison-Arnold to Everyone:

We're planning a virtual Mardi Gras event with curbside pancake supper delivery & Baby Jesus cupcakes. Hiring a company to run videos about our ministries, trivia quizzes, entertainment and other fun activities

12:36:32 From St Thomas to Everyone:

Our Bishop expects that we will maintain an online presence even after a full return to in-person services.

12:36:37 From Ken Kroohs to Everyone:

Evangelist sources are already recording the great resignation.

12:36:39 From Zeb Treloar St. John's Episcopal Murray, KY to Everyone:

I was on my weekly clergy Bible study this morning and we're all so tired. We're all feeling it. It's helpful to have spaces to be real with each other.

12:36:45 From Mercy Hobbs to Everyone:

I agree with the "Great Resignation". A lot of burn out among clergy but also are most between the ages of 65 - 72 in my diocese

12:36:47 From Carolyn to Everyone:

We've done more outside than ever, and neighbors have come! Trunk or Treat, Christmas in the Village, outdoor movie night

12:36:53 From Daryce Hoff Nolan to Host and Panelists:

Im in Chicago. Our bishop has offered the option for a one week sabbat

12:36:58 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:

Jennifer Deaton, I was in exactly that situation, and tech was really my friend. I'm happy to connect.

12:37:16 From Daryce Hoff Nolan to Host and Panelists:

Sabbatical

12:37:17 From Lois Herr to Host and Panelists:

How about continuing to pray together to see how God works in healing this pandemic. Maybe that is part of our work as clergy? Surely She didn't mean this to harm Her children.

12:37:20 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:

Very cool, @Kit!

12:37:25 From Christ Church, Ridley Park to Everyone:

question to panelists - what size properties do you have?

12:37:39 From Chrissie Crosby to Everyone:

We did an Ascension service at the airport. Under the planes taking off. 😊

12:37:45 From Bernadette Hartsough to Everyone:

Jennifer Deaton, I too have a small parish in a rural town with limited admin help. It puts a lot on the priest.

12:38:08 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:

@Christ Church, Ridley, would you please put that in Q&A? easier for panelists to find there!

12:38:11 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:

Christ Church, I was in a small rural family-sized church, very limited admin help, half time.

12:38:13 From Vanessa Cato to Everyone:

It is a lot harder for clergy with smaller churches, and few if any support staff

12:38:18 From Linda Young to Host and Panelists:

Yes to the small parishes.

12:38:19 From Anne-Marie Jeffery to Everyone:

Audio quality matter more than video

12:38:23 From Mercy Hobbs to Everyone:

Chrissie, coo having Ascension service @ the airport! Great visuals!

12:38:35 From Jeff Nieuwma to Everyone:

Take the audio feed from the sound board and put it into your stream/Facebook/zoom

12:38:38 From St Thomas to Everyone:
Audio is tough when speaking through a mask. (Required by the diocese).

12:39:00 From Teresa Phares (she/her) to Everyone:
I've recently been pondering the impact this pandemic has had on our education system in general, and how that will impact our society and the work of the church – particularly our ministry to children and youth.

12:39:15 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
Jeff, yes. We used OBS for that

12:40:12 From Daniel Leatherman to Everyone:
I'd like to see and help create the on demand content. There is stuff out there but more of it is not theologically a good fit

12:40:26 From Carol Harrison-Arnold to Everyone:
We've been doing Church by Phone every weekday morning with lay leaders since lockdown in 2020.

12:40:59 From Zeb Treloar St. John's Episcopal Murray, KY to Everyone:
churchnext.tv is great for on-demand things that already exist

12:41:07 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:
YES

12:41:17 From Laura to Everyone:
Anyone in St. Louis that would be interested in brainstorming offline, in the future? We are a smaller congregation.

12:41:18 From Maureen Hagen to Host and Panelists:
I'm not sure about smallness being a barrier. We are very small, with a PT rector, a deacon, and a PT music director. No admin support. We have done Zoom church since Palm Sunday 2020 and it has done well. The other activities are all via Zoom (poetry, book group, faith explorations) and only one is clergy-led. We have had a total of 8 weeks onsite and were hybrid then. We have a congregation under 40 and ASA 22.

12:41:24 From Daniel Leatherman to Everyone:
Online content...takes a lot of energy. Especially for quality

12:41:30 From Clare to Host and Panelists:
What's OBS please

12:41:33 From Katherine Malloy (she/her) to Everyone:
Yes! I was just going to lift up the folks mentioning small church context. Lorenzo is very mindful of you!

we are a small congregation of retirees so some don't even have email

12:42:14 From Rinda Skaggs to Everyone:
I recommend this book for an online adult formation. It is our spring interlude book for Education for Ministry and it is so timely:'

12:42:14 From linda nye to Everyone:

Kit, will you give us the link to your website/youtube channel?

12:42:35 From The Rev. Dr. Kit Carlson she/her/hers to Everyone:

YouTube.com/c/allsaintsepiscopalchurcheastlansingmi

12:42:38 From Maureen Hagen to Host and Panelists:

One thing that some clergy did to help support each other is to create a preaching rota, so different people preached each week (obviously prerecorded). That freed people's time up for other concerns.

12:42:42 From Dennis Reid to Host and Panelists:

Yep. That canva feature is terrific.

12:42:56 From Julie Fisher to Everyone:

Our tiny congregation has had a Morning Prayer Podcast produced by me and my husband weekly since March 2020. The on-demand option has been very important to keeping people engaged. Older members who are not tech-friendly like just clicking on the link they get weekly by email. Also, it is like "radio", which is a platform they feel comfortable with. We post ours on Soundcloud and publicize the playlists. People listen to them up to 2 months back as well - so even old content gets people listening to it.

12:43:00 From myimac to Everyone:

Yes. We did this on Canva and posted the video on Facebook. People loved it!

12:49:23 From John Rawlinson to Host and Panelists:
A huge number of resources are being created and placed online. HOWEVER, the new challenge is finding them. While such a venture would be difficult to organize and maintain, it would be good to have a central online source of links to those materials. Such a central source should be divided into categories (e.g., Bible studies, Sunday school, Seekers' classes, youth group activities, etc.)

12:49:32 From Vanessa Cato to Everyone:
I like a lot of the ideas, but the thought of adding another thing...

12:49:45 From Barbara Little to Host and Panelists:
We only post the sermon on YouTube and do the whole service on Zoom with a "coffee hour" after

12:49:59 From Laura McGuire to Everyone:
In a previous church, we cut off after the sermon and prayers

12:50:42 From Noelle to Everyone:
Personal invitation to families is key.

12:50:42 From Cortney Dale to Host and Panelists:
Make sure your COVID protocols are well advertised. In my area, families have reason to believe a generic church isn't taking this seriously

12:50:42 From RevDVM to Everyone:
Or going out to eat but not coming to church yet

12:50:45 From St Thomas to Everyone:
Why not put thee sermon at the end of the service, the old BCP practice?

12:50:55 From Zeb Treloar St. John's Episcopal Murray, KY to Everyone:
My house happens to be on the parade route, so I got to meet some families I had never met when we hosted a homecoming parade party in our front yard.

The parents I met who don't come honestly just don't have another day of the week they can have full jammie days

12:52:44 From Rinda Skaggs to Everyone:

I think we need to be open to how the Spirit is calling folks to reimagine their family worship experiences. What do they want the church to support them in? What do they need?

12:52:51 From Teresa Phares (she/her) to Everyone:

In fall 2020, we set up a meal ministry for families during the first week of school. Parishioners adopted a family and took them a meal, reached out to ask how they could pray for them, and we just acknowledged that we knew things were hard for them. We prayed for their safety and just reminded them that there were many people at church who loved them and cared for them. It helped a lot with retention, keeping people connected with each other.

12:52:54 From Christ Church, Ridley Park to Everyone:

the point may be that their choices in the risk diet isn't church

12:52:58 From Sr. Ingrid Andersen to Everyone:

Zeb – many of my millennial parents are working 3 jobs to survive, and schooling kids at home.

12:53:08 From Clare Nesmith to Everyone:

We asked about that, and they are interested in a weeknight -- Tuesdays or Thursday's were popular in the asking

12:55:16 From Zeb Treloar St. John's Episcopal Murray, KY to Everyone:
@Sr. Ingrid, yes. They just don't have energy for one more thing. We just keep them in the loop and we have other parents who help them stay connected.

12:55:25 From Laura McGuire to Everyone:
@Candice Frazer, there is a great resource called Learning
Forte offering a class now on best practices for hybrid and online learning.

12:55:46 From St Charles Episcopal Church to Everyone:
AMEN TO THAT, Kit!

12:55:46 From Vanessa Cato to Everyone:
I'm with you on that Kit

12:55:48 From Charles Lane Cowen (he/him) to Everyone:
perhaps not tactful, but true statement: the folks with the money want "traditional" worship times. The folks who don't have money want the weekday/non-traditional. Clergy are stretched thin. Jesus would go to the fringe, but I can't keep the church open doing that.
It's sobering and saddening to me

12:56:14 From Laura McGuire to Everyone:
It's $250 but looks to be worth every penny - [https://

12:56:23 From Clare Nesmith to Everyone:
Kit, thank you for that! I don't have the energy to chase after folks. I tell my folks that if they want to chase to have at it!
I think that will work better anyway!

12:56:35 From Catherine Thompson to Everyone:
A great article looking at how the pandemic has affected church attendance: [https://outreachmagazine.com/features/leadership/
